

Blast off for fun at the Blakesburg Public Library this Summer !!

The Blakesburg Public Library will hold a Summer Reading Program for all ages with the theme “A Universe of Stories.” Sign up begins June 10 and runs six weeks, through July 20. Participants can sign up at the library. After registering, participants will receive a reading log to complete and return at the end of the program. All completed entries will be eligible for prize drawings in different age groups (0-5; 6-8; 9-12; 13-17; 18-up). All participants can receive prizes, including free admission tickets to the Blank Park Zoo for children 12 and under (adults you can take your kids or grandchildren); free frozen push-pops from Casey’s, and free admission to an Iowa Cubs baseball game at 1:05 p.m. on Sunday, July 28. Additional prizes will include a variety of gift cards. Awards will be presented at a cookout July 23rd. Planned activities for this summer include story times, crafts, activities, movies for kids/teens/adults; Library Karaoke; and Coloring, Java and Jigsaws, and Computer Classes for adults. For a complete summer schedule of library activities, please check out the library’s web page at www.blakesburg.lib.ia.us or see the schedule here on our Facebook page. Come to the library for some summer fun that is out of this world !!
